

OMOKOROA BOAT CLUB. May Newsletter.

Newsletter May 2013

This month we have a few items of importance to the club that you may like to take a further look at..

Boat Club Mural.

Have your say now !

We have been approached by The Omokoroa Public Art Group on behalf of Marc Spijkerbosch with an offer for Marc to paint a mural free of charge on the southern end [facing the incoming traffic] of the club building. We are very lucky to have this opportunity as Marc is a world class artist. We are asking members for their input. We have placed 2 concept options that he has sent us on the Tect room notice board.

We ask that you take a look at the pictures and vote on either choice or to abandon this project. Voting open until 23rd June.

Marc has painted the likes of the Kawerau Library, a water tower in Rotorua and other buildings in Australia and India.

AGM

With the AGM coming up in June it is time to elect new committee members. We currently have 13 members and 5 will not be continuing. This has been a very active committee and all would say the job can be very rewarding. We are asking members to offer their skills and time to the club by joining the committee. We are looking in particular for help in the following areas.

Publicity - Putting together and sending out our monthly newsletter and newsflashes.

Social - Joining the sub committee that organizes the events run in the club.

We require your nomination forms to be put forward by 7th June. Forms are available at the bar.

Restaurant now open

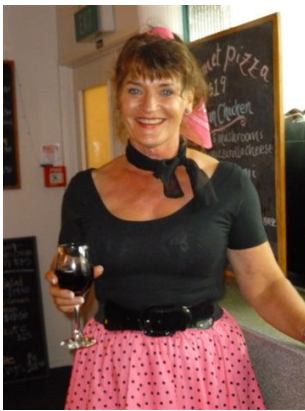

The Fork N View Bistro has been closed for a week while Wayne had to travel back to the UK. Sadly for Wayne he has had bereavement. Our condolences go out to him. Wayne intends to continue with us and has now signed a new catering contract.

Rock n Rolling at the Boat Club

The Club has embraced the coming of Winter the best way we know how. We held a party. Rock N Roll was the theme and Tim and The Rockets were in great form entertaining us with their fab music. We had a good turn out and everyone enjoyed a dance. Take a look at the photos. We had a competition for the best dressed and 2 people won a bottle of wine each for their efforts.

The night was stormy and we had a false start with a power phase tripping out just as the band were about to start. Luckily the local fire service came to the rescue and lent us their generator to get us started. We would like to thank them very much. What great community spirit. We were not going to let a small thing like no power slow us down!

Mothers Day Lunch

We hope you all had a fabulous Mothers Day.

It seems many of you took advantage of the lovely weather and came down to sit for a meal while we had Marg Harper play. She was great.
