Inaugural Bingo Night

20 people braved the awful weather on 4th June for our first bingo night, which was, by all accounts, a pretty good success.

Most had either never played before, or it had been a long time since they last played, but by the end of the first game, everyone was well into the swing of it.

We planned for five games, but got through at a cracking pace, so added another one at the end.

The consensus was that everyone would be happy with a longer night, so next time, we'll run 5 games, then have an interval for snacks, drinks, etc, then people can opt in for another 5 games if they wish.

The kitchen is open for meals from 6pm, so remember to book in advance at Skippers with your meal choice and let someone else do the dishes while you have a fun night out with friends.
We'll see you next month.
